

FULBRIGHT Australia

Diversity and Inclusion Statement

The Australian-American Fulbright Commission prides itself on being a collaborative, diverse and innovative program, committed to inclusion, equity, and diversity. We acknowledge that collective and individual talents, skills, and perspectives foster a culture of belonging and mutual respect.

We are committed to offering a nurturing and challenging intellectual climate, a respect for the spectrum of human diversity, and a genuine understanding of the many differences that will enrich the Fulbright community.

Applicants requiring additional support, including the provision of reasonable adjustments, are encouraged to contact the Scholarships Team via scholarships@fulbright.org.au prior to submitting an application.
